Notes From Hartford, Conn.

Rev. T. W. Henderson of Philadelphia, and Rev. Thomas Tice of Cambridge, Massachusetts, filed the pulpit at Bethel A. M. E. church Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Taylor of 1512 Waverly street Philadelphia, was the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. R. Purnell during the past week.

The Rev. Benjamin W. Parris, of Boston, preached a very interesting sermon Sunday afternoon at the Peoples A. M. E. Zion church. His subject was taken from the text, "One thing have I desired and that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

The Allen Chapel Sunday School held its annual outing Thursday Aug. 15th at Tounisset park, also sail ng down Narragansett and up Mt. Hope Bays.

Newslets From Narragansett

The place is slowly beginning to take on that deserted appearance, common to summer resorts at this season of the year. Only those remain who have a decided preference for the water and its fascinations.

A steady downpour for two or three days is enough to dampen one's ardor for the place as beautiful as it is otherwise.

Mrs. C. Maston has arrived and is stopping with Mrs. W. Recklin. Mr. Maston seems to be the happiest of men, since Mrs. Maston has reached here.

Mrs. J. W. Cooke and Misses Maybelle and May Cooke came over to spend the day and attend the cake walk. The Misses Cookes are spending a couple of weeks with their brother at Newport.

Mr. Justin Brown while running the elevator at the Mathewson managed to get his foot caught between the floor of elevator and the landing. He was fortunate enough to only slightly injure his toes. While his accident was painful, it is nothing serious.

LATE LOCALS.

Mr. Charles Edlin of the Philadelphia House, spent 4 or 5 days at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Maud Eberheart and Mrs. Anna Stewart 1611 4th st., n. w., left Friday of this week for a two weeks' at Atlantic City.

Misses Mildred and Annie S. Payne, 1528 New Hampshire ave. are spending the heated term in Westmoreland, Co. Virginia.

Capt. Beverly Tucker of the District and a veteran of the Civil War has been re-instated to his old position in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Mrs. C. W. Lewis of 1619 3rd street, n. w. leaves today for a weeks stay at Atlantic City, after which she will visit Brooklyn, N. Y. as the guest of her sister, Miss Amanda A. Cropper.

Mr. R. W. Thompson has been dangerously ill this week at his lodgings, 124 L street northwest. He is recovering, under the careful ministrations of Dr. E. D. Williston.

Mrs. M. B. Ayling, one of the expert accountants in the Census Office, has returned from a month's vacation, which she enjoyably spent at Atlantic City and at her home in Georgia. She is greatly improved by her outing.

DABNEY'S HAIR AND SCALP POMADE.

I have had long experience in the study and treatment of the hair and after having given careful study I know of no preparation so beneficial to the hair and scalp as this pomade. It contains everything that will stimulate the growth of the hair; stop its falling out; cure the dandruff and will thicken and promote its growth. By careful treatment and following the instructions the hair will become soft, silky, and healthy. Full directions are printed on each jar. Where the Pomade is not desired a tonic can be furnished with the same ingredients. The prices are as follows—

Dabney's Pomade per bottle, city prices only, $.25; Dabney's Tonic, $ .50; Dabney's Shampoo, $ .50. Dabney's Dandruff Destroyer per bottle, $ .75.

Orders promptly attended to. Prepared by J. W. Dabney and sold by Mrs. J. W. Dabney, 1132 3rd St., northwest, Washington, D. C.

NOTE:—Mr. Dabney is one of the most successful tonsorial artists in Washington, having a well established business. He attends upon the president and many of the leading business men, officers of the army and diplomats of the country.
